

Essays

Location: A/Essays

- 1802 "Doctor Crawford in answer to Doctor Bossard on the rise, progress and treatment of the yellow fever." Fourteen handwritten pages by Dr. Pierre St. Medard. A journal of diseases contracted aboard U.S.F. New York. Includes case of Serg Shubel Cross.
[Catalog# 259.4]
- 1885 "Not one left Martin Burckes died at Somerville May 16, 1885." Author unknown. Seven handwritten pages of what appears to be copy of Martin Burckes obituary. Probably written by a family member.
[Catalog# 880.1]
- 1925 October 22 "Why will the preservation of U.S.S. CONSTITUTION promote patriotism?" Five handwritten pages by Catherine Hooban, who was an eighth grade student at the Heath School. The national essay contest was sponsored by the Elks Lodge.
[Catalog# 1786.1]
- 1925 October 27 "The Constitution." Two handwritten pages by Betty Richey from the Devotion School in Brookline, Massachusetts. The national essay contest was sponsored by the Elks Lodge.
[Catalog# 1786.2]
- 1925 October "Why Will the Preservation of the U.S.S. CONSTITUTION, 'Old Ironsides' Promote Patriotism?" Two typewritten pages by Julia Kachevar. This was a local and national award-winning essay, which Julia wrote when she was an eighth grade student at St. Joseph School in Grand Junction, Colorado. The national essay contest was sponsored by the Elks Lodge.
[Catalog# 306.1]